

World within Worlds

We are DASH. We support disabled artists to make work.

We are looking for disabled artists to be part of our project World within Worlds.

World 2 course

There are 3 different worlds to choose from. All the worlds are online and virtual. You might be a painter, illustrator or performer. What you find out and do in your world is up to you.

World 2

My Magical Me in a Magical World

This course runs from 25th May - 17th June 2021.

You will work with an artist called Luca Bosani. Luca works in performance art. His art has been shown in art galleries around the world and in the UK. He is a trained artist and likes to work in new ways.

You will work with Luca to make a new version of yourself in a magical world. You will use paints and other materials to make a new and exciting world.

Luca will help you to use Zoom so that your world can be online. You will create new outfits to wear to create a character.

Luca will work together with you to make this new world. He will introduce you to new music and artists like Nick Cave and Rebecca Horn.

You can find out more about Luca and his work here
